Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today we celebrate the start of Catholic Schools Week. For many, many years, Catholic schools were in relative abundance, especially in the Archdiocese of Detroit. If you are old like me, remember the time when almost every parish had their own school and there was great competition between them. Now, of course, there are few Catholic schools and still some competition, however the competition might be more for existence than anything else!

So many thousands of people are products of Catholic schools. When you get them talking, they usually focus on the treatment some received from "the nuns" in elementary school. There certainly are some pretty good stories out there! The stories you hear about the treatment from some of the religious brothers or priests in high school were also frightening and comical. Nonetheless, there are also many testimonies about the formation, above and beyond the education, they received in Catholic school. The dedicated and passionate teachers in Catholic schools were always seeking to provide much more than the mere academic aspect of school for they were concerned about all aspects of life in our current world. They were concerned about a respectful social life, a life of service to others, a healthy lifestyle and certainly a solid life not only knowing the faith but in the living and practice of the faith.

Do Catholic schools still have a place in the educational system? Absolutely. They are still generally known and respected for their discipline, higher standards in education and of course the passing on of the faith and its integration in life. Are they perfect? No. No school or school system is. Are they still important in the formation of future vocations for the Church? Absolutely. Even with the decline of religious sisters, brothers, and priests teaching in the schools, the Catholic mission and philosophy continues and generates vocations for the Church. There are so many wonderful aspects of Catholic schools, it is no wonder why many, many people who are products of them will say in a heartbeat, "I'd choose them again."

Our school has a long history of excellence in a solid education as well as faith formation. Thanks to all of you who are so supportive of Catholic schools in general and certainly our own parish school. Yes, parish schools are expensive to the parish as well as to the school families, but they are priceless in the formation of the students and the community.

 Thanks again for your faithful stewardship to the parish. Remember your Sunday envelope each and every Sunday. A very easy and helpful way to steady stewardship to the parish is through Faith Direct. www.faith.direct/MI1044 or call their Customer Service team at 866-507-8757.

 Prayers, please, for our second grade students. Last week they received the Grace from the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Pray for their continued understanding and love the Mass and the Eucharist as they continue to come to Sunday Mass every week with their family in preparation for their First Holy Communion.

Have a great week in the Lord's peace. Continue to pray for one another.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

MASS INTENTIONS

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

It is worth noting, however, that the offering of the Mass for that intention does not depend on it being publicly voiced but on it being specified in the priest's personal prayers. Similarly, if a priest announces that "I am offering this Mass for [such and such an] intention" he does not thereby require the rest of the congregation to pray for that intention.

THE PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have gifted us
in your Son Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity kindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us, the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for treasures of heaven.

May the same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer.
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.

Dear Star Family and Friends -

I wonder if it has ever occurred to you what our Choir does in the days and weeks that follow Christmas... We start practicing for Easter! Yes, while most of us still have our Christmas decorations up, we begin working on music for the Sacred Triduum. This season, Easter falls a bit later in the year so we have some extra time to prepare, but that just means that we can work some additional music and perhaps music that is a bit more challenging - all for the Glory of God! With that in mind, we would love to welcome new singers to our ensemble - which is very much a family within our parish family. The choir, like most of our ministries, is open to any Confirmed Catholic, and if you are looking for a fun, challenging, activity within the parish, and you have some musical background, or are open to learning some new skills we'd love to have you. You don't have to be able to read music, many of our members do not, but you should be able to carry a tune, and certainly be open to direction.

We rehearse every Wednesday night, in church from 7-8:30pm - with some additional small group rehearsals scheduled as needed. If you'd like more information, please email or call Aaron in the office. Our choir is grateful for your continued support and we thank you for your consideration!

Support Wildfire Relief in California

As wildfires continue to devastate communities across California, we are called to respond with the compassion and generosity that defines our Catholic faith. Families have lost their homes, their livelihoods, and their sense of stability. In these moments of great need, Catholic Charities USA is providing life-saving resources to those directly impacted by these tragic events.

100% of your donation will go directly toward wildfire relief efforts. Your gift will help provide essential resources such as food, water, shelter, and long-term recovery assistance for those most affected by this disaster.

Together, as a community of faith here in southeast Michigan, we can make a meaningful difference. Let us unite in prayer and action to bring hope and healing to those who are suffering.

Thank you for your generosity and care for those in need.

Stewardship Thoughts

Today, from the Book of Nehemiah and St. Luke's Gospel, God's Word is proclaimed to the people. Although the assembly in the Old Testament embraces Ezra's declaration, Jesus' profession that He is the anointed One does not go as well in His hometown. We can enhance our relationship with Christ by absorbing and reflecting on the readings proclaimed before the Eucharistic celebration at Mass, and by personally reading the Bible as several of our Holy Fathers have encouraged over the years. Read a few Scripture verses daily to allow the power of the Holy Spirit to open the meaning of the Word to you. Consider the Lectio Divina exercise of Scripture study to inspire you to evangelize — to spread the Good News — through your stewardship actions.

Our food pantry needs the following items:

Please drop off items in the gathering space.
