Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Today, February 2, is 40 days since Christmas. In some cultures, for many years, this day would officially bring to conclusion the Christmas season. In many ways it makes sense since Jesus spent 40 days in the desert, the 40 days of Lent, and there are 40 days of Easter to the traditional Ascension Thursday. The Church likes 40!

We celebrate the Presentation of the Lord today, when Jesus was presented in the temple to God. It commemorates the Jewish practice of the purification after childbirth of the mother, Mary, and the dedication of the child, Jesus, to God.

Today's celebration might also call to mind in many parents when they brought their child to the Church for Baptism. Parents bring their child for baptism for many reasons. The bottom line for most parents would probably be that their child be blessed and protected by God throughout the child's life, with faith and love of God in the child.

The faith of the child, like all aspects of the young child's life, is dependent upon the parents. There are also three reminders during the baptismal ritual of this dependence as the parents are asked three times if they are ready to raise the child in the practice of the faith. We forget sometimes that our faith needs practice, just like anything else in our life. Without practice, there is no development and growth.

I like this simple reflection for this day:

"Life messages: 1) Every Holy Mass in which we participate is our presentation.

Although we were officially presented to God on the day of our Baptism, we present ourselves and our dear ones on the altar before God our Father through our Savior Jesus Christ at every Holy Mass. Hence, we need to live our daily lives with the awareness both that we are dedicated people consecrated to God and that we are obliged to lead holy lives.

2) We need the assistance of the Holy Spirit to recognize the presence of Jesus in ourselves and in others: All those who, like Simeon and Anna, persevere in piety and in the service of God, no matter how insignificant their lives seem in men's eyes, become instruments the Holy Spirit uses to make Christ known to others. In His plan of redemption, God makes use of these simple souls to do much good for all mankind. In other words, The Holy Spirit employs ordinary men and women with simple faith as His instruments to bear witness to Christ, His ideals and teachings, just as He used Simeon and Anna. The Holy Spirit reveals the presence of the Lord to us when we are receptive and eager to receive Him. Let us be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit within us to recognize the indwelling presence of the Lord with us and in others." (Fr. Antony Kadavil, Vatican News)

Have a great week practicing the faith and open to the Holy Spirit moving and directing you!

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

MASS INTENTIONS

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

It is worth noting, however, that the offering of the Mass for that intention does not depend on it being publicly voiced but on it being specified in the priest's personal prayers. Similarly, if a priest announces that "I am offering this Mass for [such and such an] intention" he does not thereby require the rest of the congregation to pray for that intention.

THE PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have gifted us
in your Son Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity kindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us, the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for treasures of heaven.

May the same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer.
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

The Scripture passages today speak to God's promise to send a Savior to mankind. The prophet Malachi likens God's messenger to refined precious metals. The Letter to the Hebrews explains how Jesus came to help not angels, but mankind. In St. Luke's Gospel, Mary and Joseph take the baby Jesus to the Temple. In accordance with the law, He is consecrated to the Lord. Simeon, a just man, and Anne, a prophetess, witness in the presence of the infant Jesus the fulfillment of the ancient prophecies. We, as faithful stewards, strive to build a deeper relationship with the Lord — to consecrate our lives to His will. May this feast day inspire us to embrace Christ's will to accomplish His work in our parish communion and the greater community.

Dear Star Family and Friends -

I wonder if it has ever occurred to you what our Choir does in the days and weeks that follow Christmas... We start practicing for Easter! Yes, while most of us still have our Christmas decorations up, we begin working on music for the Sacred Triduum. This season, Easter falls a bit later in the year so we have some extra time to prepare, but that just means that we can work some additional music and perhaps music that is a bit more challenging - all for the Glory of God! With that in mind, we would love to welcome new singers to our ensemble - which is very much a family within our parish family. The choir, like most of our ministries, is open to any Confirmed Catholic, and if you are looking for a fun, challenging, activity within the parish, and you have some musical background, or are open to learning some new skills we'd love to have you. You don't have to be able to read music, many of our members do not, but you should be able to carry a tune, and certainly be open to direction.

We rehearse every Wednesday night, in church from 7-8:30pm - with some additional small group rehearsals scheduled as needed. If you'd like more information, please email or call Aaron in the office. Our choir is grateful for your continued support and we thank you for your consideration!

Support Wildfire Relief in California

As wildfires continue to devastate communities across California, we are called to respond with the compassion and generosity that defines our Catholic faith. Families have lost their homes, their livelihoods, and their sense of stability. In these moments of great need, Catholic Charities USA is providing life-saving resources to those directly impacted by these tragic events.

100% of your donation will go directly toward wildfire relief efforts. Your gift will help provide essential resources such as food, water, shelter, and long-term recovery assistance for those most affected by this disaster.

Together, as a community of faith here in southeast Michigan, we can make a meaningful difference. Let us unite in prayer and action to bring hope and healing to those who are suffering.

Thank you for your generosity and care for those in need.
