Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

This past Tuesday, the Archdiocese of Detroit received word that a new shepherd will be coming to the Archdiocese. Pope Francis has accepted the resignation of Archbishop Vigneron, who, by canon law, wrote his letter back in October of 2023, and appointed Bishop Edward Weisenburger as the new Archbishop of Detroit. Bishop Weisenburger has been the 7th Bishop of Tucson, Arizona for the past 7 years. Bishop Weisenburger was born in Illinois but ordained for the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City in 1987. He was appointed Bishop of Salina, Kansas in 2012, then appointed the Bishop of Tucson in 2017. The Diocese of Tucson is the 5th largest diocese geographically, comprising of 42,707 square miles with 400,000 Catholics and 77 parishes. The Archdiocese of Detroit has just under 1 million Catholics and 215 parishes. Bishop Weisenburger will be the Eleventh Ordinary and the Sixth Archbishop of Detroit. His Installation date will be March 18 at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The appointment of Archbishop Weisenburger begins a new era for this archdiocese. I am pretty sure he will continue, at least for a while, the good work begun in the archdiocese since Synod '16, which, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, set us out to be more mission focused than maintenance focused. This has been the work the past few years and the formation of the Family of Parishes, comprised of teams of priests to minister to a group of parishes. The work continues as we evaluate and take note of the declining clergy where we now have less priests than parishes. Archbishop's latest "pastoral note," No Second Tunic, A Mission-Ready Families of Parishes in the Archdiocese of Detroit," highlighted the steep decline in clergy as well as Catholics in the pews on Sundays. Couple that with all the buildings, some totally empty, and their upkeep, we face more attention on the maintenance rather than the missionary work of the Church. Over the next few years, more adjustments will be made to "right size" the ship and focus on our mission of serving God's people.

Please continue to pray for the Archdiocese of Detroit, our soon to be Archbishop, Edward Weisenburger, our family of parishes, and for all the people of the archdiocese. May our Patroness, Ste. Anne, and Blessed Solanus Casey continue to watch over us and help us serve the poor and the poor in spirit in Southeast Michigan.

* Our parish Auction is fast approaching. And Ash Wednesday is around the corner after that. Lots to do, lots to think about, much to pray for!!

Enjoy the week growing in the Lord's love for you.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

MASS INTENTIONS

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

It is worth noting, however, that the offering of the Mass for that intention does not depend on it being publicly voiced but on it being specified in the priest's personal prayers. Similarly, if a priest announces that "I am offering this Mass for [such and such an] intention" he does not thereby require the rest of the congregation to pray for that intention.

Mass Intentions -

Please Note: Mass intentions may be arranged by coming into the parish office or online at www.olsos.org/mass-intentions. According to Archdiocesan Policy, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass per person. Masses can be for the deceased (+) and the living, so please don't assume that a Mass being said for a living person, means that they are ill, please respect the privacy of all individuals.

Volunteer Tutors Needed!

The Felician Sisters have established an exciting new ministry called Deo Gratias Ministries Detroit.

Their base of operations is at the former St. Jude Parish Center on 7 Mile, just west of Kelly.

The Ministry has a great need for tutors to work with students grade 1-8 in math and/or language arts. The tutoring takes place on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3 pm to 5 pm.

Interested volunteers can call Sr. Shelley Marie Jeffrey at 734-309-1580 or email her at sistersshelly@dgmddetroit.org.

The Felicians need your time and talent. You can make a huge difference in a youngster's life!

Stewardship Thoughts

The theme of hope connects today's Scripture passages. In the First Reading, the prophet Jeremiah states, Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord. St. Paul professes, in his First Letter to the Corinthians: If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all. But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. In the Gospel, the evangelist St. Luke presents his version of the beatitudes expressed by Jesus. With hope, for those who are hungry, weeping, and insulted for His name, our Lord proclaims: Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. In a world desperate for Christ, faithful stewards hope in the Lord, for He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14:6). In the Scriptures, Jesus encourages us to persevere in difficult times. Make time daily to read a few verses of the Bible and attend Mass regularly to find strength and hope in the Eucharist.
