Confirmation Sponsor completes the following:

"... It is only fitting that the sponsor be a Catholic who was received the sacraments of confirmation and the Eucharist. But even a fully initiated Catholic may be restricted from exercising the office of sponsor if he or she does not live the faith in a manner that is in keeping with the responsibilities of this office. Thus, people who do not participate regularly in the Eucharist who are living in marriage not recognized by the Church may not be qualified to function as sponsors." (Code of Canon Law 874)

"... parents are prohibited from being sponsors of their own children." (Code of Canon Law 874)

Please check each box below that pertains to you to indicate that you meet the requirements to be a confirmation sponsor.
